

FINANCES

I am blessed because I believe in, trust in and rely on the Lord, placing my hope and confidence in Him alone. I delight myself in the Lord, and He gives me the desires and secret petitions of my heart. The Lord withholds no good thing from me because I walk uprightly, following His commands and purposes for my life. My heavenly Father knows what I need before I even ask and generously supplies my every need according to His riches and glory in Christ Jesus. As I devote my heart and soul to seeking the Lord, my God, I will prosper in every way, even as my soul prospers.

When I honor the Lord with a tenth of my income, He opens the floodgates of heaven and pours out an abundance of blessing. It is my heart's desire to sow generously into the kingdom of God, so that blessings might come to others. As I do, I reap generously. God will provide and multiply my resources and increase the fruits of my righteousness—goodness, kindness and charity.

I thank You Father for Your blessings and favor, knowing that every good and perfect gift comes from You. I am content in my present circumstances and with what I have. I refuse to allow greed, lust and craving for earthly possessions to control my thoughts, for the love of money is the root of all evil. I trust in God, for He has promised that He will not fail me, give me up, nor leave me without support. I will not gather or store up for myself treasures on earth, for they will eventually perish. Instead, I will store up for myself treasures in heaven. For where my treasure is, my heart is also. I strive to do good works, and to be generous of heart, and ready to share with others. In this way, I am laying a firm foundation for the future, that I might grasp that which is life indeed.

(Jer.17:7; Psa.37:4; 84:11; Mat.6:8; Phi.4:19; 3Jo.1:2; Mal.3:10; 2Co.9:6-7; Jam.1:17; Heb.13:5; 1Ti.6:10; Mat.6:19-21; 1Ti.6:18-19; 2Co.9:10)